Jill Westwood & Liz Geatorex-Davies

Matters arising: -

There were no matters arising

Treasurer's Report:

The Treasurer, Rose Stevens stated that: -

Current account held £2,625.97 and the deposit account was £10,000.

The willow weaving raised £90 and Alison Neal £388

Film nights remain popular, The two films shown brought in £275 and £146 respectively, it needs to be recognised that door takings do not include the rental costs for the film therefore should not be taken as the profit made.

Pub night raised £95

Lottery winners are as follows: -

Sarah Camp - £150

Fiona Wilton - £105

Steve Butcher - £45

The lottery profit is £100 per calendar month.

Chairman's Report:

- The Notice Boards have arrived and positioned neatly on the wall labelled: PHOTOS, EVENTS & VILLAGE NOTICES.
- The provision of a map outside the hall was discussed and Sarah has obtained 3 quotes. It was agreed that we should use the local supplier Chilli Peppers of Monmouth.
- The skittles evening was a success.

Future Events

- Yoga classes are held every Tuesday evening and Thursday morning hosted by Ruth. Ruth may also run a couple of Drop in events in August.
- Further willow weaving courses, run by Julie, will be held on 17/18 August and this event is full. It is hoped to run another two-day course on 31st August/1st September from 1000-1700. See website for details.
- Another Willow weaving making - A Star, Christmas Tree and a Spiral will be held on 2nd November from 1000 – 1500 at a cost of £35 pp. See website for details.
- Again more Christmas decoration in the form of wreath making will be held on 5th December between the hours of 1900 and 2200 at a cost of £35pp. See website for details.
- Richard has offered to hold the summer party at Catbrook Cottage on Sunday 25th August, which is Bank holiday weekend. Take some food.

- Andy has organised ALAW for a music evening on 20th September 1900 for a 1930 start.
- Remembrance Sunday service will be on Sunday 10th November
- The carol Service will be on 22nd December
- New Years Eve party – Cats Claw has now been booked through the Night out scheme. Pat has agreed to be the named person for the arrangements.
- Sarah has arranged with Suzanne for another chocolate making day in the hall if enough people are interested. There will two sessions on 8th December.
- We believe that Alan Deadicote will be available for the Children in Need Quizz this year.
- Sewing classes will begin again in September.
- A discussion was held in respect of holding some more Ballet lessons. Sarah will contact those who attended last year to gauge if there is enough support to hold further classes.

AOB.

- Pat said that the Ukulele group she saw at the Fountain Pub would like to play in our hall. It was suggested that this could be good entertainment on a Pub Night.
- Marion reminded all that the Narth Singers are at Llandogo village hall this Thursday.
